

Dr. Syrulwa Somah attended the Poro University in Liberia where he learned discipline, character excellence, and transition into manhood. He was also educated at LaGuardia Community College in Long Island, New York and at the State University of New York. Dr. Somah also has two graduate degrees from Central Michigan University and the University of Oklahoma, Norman, OK. His Ph.D. from the Union Institute & Universities in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr. Somah is an Associate Professor and Graduate Program Coordinator, Environmental Health and Occupational Safety & Health at North Carolina Agricultural & Technical State University. He is also the Executive Director of Liberian History, Education & Development. Dr. Somah is the author of several books, including, The Historical Resettlement of Liberia and Its Environmental Impact, Christianity, Colonization and State of African Spirituality, and Nyanyan Gohn-Manan: History, Migration & Government of the Bassa (a book about traditional Bassa leadership and cultural norms published in 2003).

Duankadyu is inspirational and filled with suspense. It comprises of riddles, songs and drama. It is much more than the legend of people, places, and events. Duankadyu is a fascinating account of the beginning of the human race, evil and greed. It promises a life-changing experience.

DUANKADYU: THE LEGEND OF THE BASSA

By Syrulwa
Somah

DUANKADYU: THE LEGEND OF THE BASSA

Syrulwa Somah